Whether or not you know the true story of the 1976 "Judgement of Paris", when California wine triumphed over the unquestionable and undefeatable French wine in a blind tasting, you can appreciate this witty and charming movie. Actors Alan Rickman and Bill Pullman give the movie its two legs, and Chris Pine gives it heart. For the wine geeks, there's plenty of wine information, history, views of vineyards and technical jargon. Enjoy this one with your favorite bottle of California Chardonnay or California Cabernet Sauvignon.
