VIN48

Although the state of Colorado has more than 10 Master Sommeliers, its tough to find wine bars there, especially ones worth recognizing. The ski town of Beaver Creek got lucky when VIN48 opened next door in Avon. It's a great place to drop-in for a glass of wine and appetizer or plan ahead for an intimate dinner date. If you are in the mood to try something new, there are over 40 wines by the glass and half-glass! This is a hip, attractive place offering small and large plates and using local ingredients. The menu is always changing, but consistently satisfies the palate. Belly-up to the wine bar and check-out their Enomatic wine preservations system. A definite stop if you are near Beaver Creek or Vail. Kudos to the owners who value quality wine education and are known to send their staff to the Court of Master Sommeliers exams.
